NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Conditions in Hungary.

The scene of the conflict between the coalition party and the crown will be transferred from Budapesth to the country districts, where disorders can be expected within a week.

The coalition deputies plan to proceed to their various election districts at the end of this week, assemble their constituents and protest against Monday's alleged illegal dissolution of Parliament. These meetings will be prevented and broken up by the government, with the assistance of gendarmes, on the ground that the crown cannot and will not tolerate such criticism of an act which it considers constitutional.

It is interesting to note in this connection that the Supreme Court of Hungary yesterday morning handed down a decision in two cases dealing with contested elections of deputies to the effect that Monday's dissolution of Parliament was lawful. Furthermore,, the government is determined to dissolve, by force if necessary, all existing political clubs as soon as such clubs embark upon a course which the government considers treasonable.

It seems as if the crown had determined to terminate the right of free meeting, free press and even free speech in Hungary whenever such manifestations reflect on the legality of the crown's actions. As proof of this it was said yesterday in government circles that the crown is prepared to suppress newspapers which conduct a propaganda based on criticism of its actions Monday.

The coalition party is not ignorant of the crown's intentions and its members are discussing the necessity of holding secret meetings. The party rather expects its newspapers to be suppressed.

The question of calling a new general election has not yet been determined upon and will not be decided until the crown learns what happens in the country districts.

The problem now confronting the coalition party seems to be whether on not it can persuade the people of Hungary to sacrifice themselves to a greater or less degree for what the coalition declares to be the cause of the country at large.

The liberal party at Budapesth recognizes Monday's dissolution of parliament as lawful. The liberals will not attempt to proceed to the House today with the intention of holding a meeting.

Virginia Murder Mysteries.

The relatives of Mr. Willis Hargroves, a wealthy farmer and manufacturer, whose body was found on the trestle of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway at Boone station, near Norfolk, a few night ago, have secured evidence which leads them to believe that Mr. Hargroves was murdered and that his body was left on the trestle to conceal the crime. The relatives of the dead man have been informed by "Bill" Andrews, a colored employe on the farm of Henry Kiro, that the night the body was found he heard someone call for help and he afterward heard two pistol shots. Other people living near the scene of the tragedy have corroborated Andrews' statement. The body was too badly mutilated for pistol wounds to be seen. Another clue which leads Mr. Hargroves' relatives to believe that he was murdered is that the hat and eyeglasses of the dead man were found on the railroad track between Boone station and the trestle and his coat was found on the railroad track between the trestle and his factory. It is believed that the man was murdered at the point where his hat and eyeglasses were found and after his clothing had been rifled of all their valuables his body was carried to the trestle and left there.

The coroner's jury in Roanoke yesterday, after investigating the murder of J. B. Traynham, who was found dead Monday, with his skull crushed, returned a verdict to the effect that unknown persons were responsible for his death. There were nine different wounds inflicted on the head, face and neck, any one of which, in the opinion of the physicians, would have caused death. Two buckets of water, one deeply tinged with blood, the other slightly discolored, were found in the room, which indicated that the assassin had washed the blood from his hands. The wound in the neck severed the jugular vein, and cut the windpipe half in two. The police declare that no tangible clew has been found. The murdered man left large property interests, and recently received $4,000 for the sale of some property to the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth arrived at Tampa, Fla., at 10:35 o'clock yesterday evening on the private car Elysian and proceeded directly to Port Tampa, there boarding the steamer for Havana to spend part of their honeymoon in Cuba. At the station in Tampa last night a large crowd gathered, and the Cuban consul, F. F. Mendoza, presented to Mrs. Longworth a magnificent floral design emblematic of the friendship of Cubans for herself and her father. Mrs. Longworth smilingly received the gift.

At Tampa Bay station the hotel orchestra gave the couple a serenade, and the train was boarded by E. W. Morgan, United States Minister to Cuba, who goes to Havana to assume his duties at his new post, and by President J. M. Barr and Vice President E. F. Cost, of the Seaboard Air Line, who also are en route to Cuba.

The authorities of Havana are arranging an invitation gala grand opera performance at the National Theater for Friday, at which it is proposed that Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth shall occupy the President's box as Havana's guests of honor.

Very great interest is being taken in the President's annual ball, February 22, on account of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Longworth are expected to be present. They will also be urged to attend the ball of the American Club on Washington's Birthday.

Health of American Women

A Subject Much Discussed at Women's Clubs—The Future of a Country Depends on the Health of Its Women.

At the New York State Assembly of Mothers, a prominent New York doctor told the 500 women present that healthy American women were so rare as to be almost extinct.

This seems to be a sweeping statement of the condition of American women. Yet how many do you know who are perfectly well and do not have some trouble arising from a derangement of the female organism which manifests itself in headaches, backaches, nervousness, that bearing-down feeling, painful or irregular periods, pelvic catarrh, displacement of the female organs, indigestion or sleeplessness? There is a tried and true remedy for all these ailments. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored more American women to health than all other remedies in the world. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can. For thirty years it has been curing the worst forms of female complaints.

Such testimony as the following should be convincing.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Ia., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For two years I spent lots of money in doctoring without any benefit for female irregularities and I had given up all hopes of ever being well again, but I was persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three bottles have restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I would have been in my grave to-day."

Miss Mattie Henry, Vice-President of Danville Art Club, Danville, Va., writes; Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Many years' suffering with female weakness, inflammation and a broken down system made me more anxious to die than to live, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health and I am so grateful for it that I want every suffering woman to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for her."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, pelvic catarrh, displacements, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. No other medicine in the world has received such unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

The End of The World

of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years' ago Kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

The 26th Anniversary of the Establishment of Our House

Is Announced for This Wednesday.

We are not only celebrating the anniversary of twenty-six years of successful business enterprise, but we desire to make the occasion worthy of the source of our continued prosperity—that law of service which underlies all progress and which has given impetus to our unrestricted and successful achievements.

To be of use to others; to give our public the best service—the service they have a right to expect—has been the one ideal which has impelled us with unswerving purpose to enlarge, to broaden, to expand our proportions, our facilities, and resources, until today this organization stands as the foremost commercial house in Washington.

The method of this service has met with the reward of generous patronage and appreciative encouragement. The manner of the service testifies to the degree of usefulness to the public, whose indorsement, confidence and loyalty have enabled us to fulfill our purpose—to maintain a house which should hold the interests of its patrons close at heart.

Commensurate, then, with our gratitude, our appreciation of continuous acknowledgment of approval from our public of our establishment, our aims and achievements, we will offer during the next four days exceptional values in the various departments, and each day there will be special opportunities to secure new, fresh, desirable merchandise at very unusual prices.

WEDNESDAY EVENING. FEB. 21, 1906.

A LOCK CANAL, the main portion of it to be 85 feet above sea level, estimated to cost about $140,000,000, and to be completed in about eight and a half years, is the plan contemplated in the report of the Isthmian Canal Commission, which was sent to Congress by President Roosevelt Monday. His letter of transmittal gives hearty indorsement to the plan, and he says that unless Congress specifically orders otherwise the plan will be put into immediate execution, as, in his opinion, the law now on the statute books seem to contemplate this type of canal The five foreign engineers who were invited to consult upon the type of canal all recommended a sea-level waterway. The President "lets them down easy" by saying that they probably had in mind the success of the sea-level Suez canal and had not paid much attention to the success of the Sault Ste Marie lock canal, which, though closed in winter, still handles three times as much traffic as the Suez canal. The President, Secretary Taft, Chief Engineer John F. Stevens and the members of the Isthmian Canal Commission, with one exception, Rear Admiral Mordecai T. Endicott, all heartily indorse the finding of the minority of the consulting engineers. It was shown in the majority report that the cost of the sea-level canal proposed by the majority would be $257,021,000, or, in round numbers, $107,000,000 more than the type advocated by the minority. The time which it would take to construct the sea-level canal would be, in the opinion of the majority, between [illegible] years. There will probably be a lively row in Congress [illegible], especially if Senators it worth while to [illegible] against any sort of [illegible] is of Panama, but [illegible] at neither house will pass any sort of measure adverse to the plan submitted by the Canal Commission and indorsed by the President. If it does not pass adverse legislation the construction of the lock canal will proceed without further authorization from Congress.

ANOTHER effort is being made on the part of Virginia and Maryland, through their legislatures now in session, to arrive at some line in the Potomac river dividing the oyster properties and industries of the two States, and to formulate some uniform plan of legislation which will prevent the depredation of parties in one State upon the property of the other. It looks, too, as if this one may be successful. Both legislatures have named joint committees to confer with one another on these very important subjects, and these committees began their work in Richmond yesterday. It is hoped that a satisfactory settlement of the long standing dispute may soon be reached.

WHILE conservative Senators who favor an appeal to the courts amendment to the Hepburn Dolliver bill have been busy trying to devise such an amendment that will meet the acceptance of the President and Attorney General Moody, the opposition has not been idle. It is now asserted with positiveness that 18 republicans and 30 democrats, three more than a majority of the Senate, have been lined up in opposition to an appeal amendment of any kind. Radicalism seems to be in the ascendant now.

EXTENSIVE preparation are in progress for a great war between the coal miners and the coal owners in both the anthracite and bituminous fields. Prudent consumers will therefore meet the emergency by laying in their supplies of coal, thus putting money in their purses. But unfortunately there is a great multitude of poor consumers who cannot thus provide for the future, and who will be the chief sufferers from the impending conflict.

THE chairman of the committee of the House of Representatives which is investigating affairs at the Annapolis Naval Academy says that the whole academy was apparently involved in the hazing. This has been believed by many from the beginning and shows that the officers were more responsible for the condition of affairs at the academy than were the cadets, as culpable as were the latter.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Feb. 21.

There is a rumor in circulation here that the President will send to the Senate on Washington's birthday the name of Mr. Lawrence Washington as postmaster in Alexandria. Mr. Washington is a relative of the first President, and now holds a position in the Library of Congress

The congress on uniform divorce laws is still in session here, seeking to draft a code of laws which they hope all the states will enact into law. Every section brings different views on the subject and hardly a delegation to the convention can reach an unanimous agreement on any question. Judge S. C. Stimson, of the Indiana Superior Court, has attracted much attention by declaring that twice as many divorces are granted to couples married by magistrates as to those united by ministers. He wants more stringent divorce laws, although it is said he has granted more divorces than any other man in the congress. E. D. Leach, of Moundsville, W. Va., has stirred up the congress by demanding the adoption of a resolution urging the education of the young in sexual hygiene. He says at least 89 per cent. of divorces are obtained because of improper marriages due to unnatural marital conditions and bases this statement upon responses of hundreds of physicians to whom he sent letters asking them to give their opinion as to the real causes of the divorces granted in their communities. The differences of opinions of delegates to the congress assumed almost violent proportions during the debate at today's session.

Miss Hildegarde McKenna, daughter of Associate Justice McKenna, of the United States Supreme Court, was married at noon today to John Pultz, of New York, at the home of the bride's parents in this city. Senator Tillman today called the attention of Representative Townsend of Michigan to an important oversight in connection with the adoption yesterday by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, of the substitute for the Tillman resolution providing for an investigation of railroad monopolies in coal and oil. It was inadvertently so amended as to eliminate the provision looking to an investigation of whether railroads own coal mines and oil properties, as well as the coal and oil which they transport. Shortly before noon, today, the committee corrected the mistake by adopting an amendment making the purpose of the resolution clear. Representative Townsend's report on the subject was approved and he submitted it to the House today. It will be printed and Representative Townsend will tomorrow endeavor to secure consideration of the resolution in the House by unanimous consent.

Mr. Townsend's report outlines its provisions and states that it is recommended for the reason of charges from what seem to be reliable sources, have been made against various railroad companies engaged in interstate commerce to the effect that such companies have an interest either directly or indirectly in coal and oil which they carry and by various devices give a preference to such coal and oil to the disadvantage of competing owners; that they or their officers, directly or otherwise, in coal and oil properties served by their roads and through the distribution of cars and the furnishing of facilities of transportation and shipment discriminate against the so-called independent owners; that by inter-corporate ownership of the stock of other carriers of coal and oil, together with ownership of such stock by certain of the officers of said companies, control of such other carriers is obtained and thus combinations in restraint of trade and commerce are formed, which work injustice to the independent shippers of oil and coal, and great wrong to the consumers of those products.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Mr. Thomas, of Campbell, lost on his resolution in the Senate yesterday for the appointment of a tax commission and a revision of the tax laws of the State. It is the same bill introduced in the House by Mr. Byrd on Monday, Mr. Thomas being the originator. Mr. Thomas made a speech in behalf of the resolution.

Mr. Wickham, in opposing the measure, declared there was a revolutionary spirit in the present legislature; that everything was being attacked and criticised, and that nothing was held sacred. In passing, he referred to the fangs of the Senator from Campbell. Mr. Thomas sprang to his feet on a question of personal privilege, and declared he did not object to proper criticism from any gentleman, but did not intend to submit to such personalities. Mr. Wickham disclaimed any intention to offend, and continued with his speech.

The Senate by a vote of 10 to 18 declined to send the bill to its engrossment, and so it will end for this session.

The Byrd resolution calling for an investigation of the circumstances under which Lanier, Fewby and Tyler were dismissed from the corporation commission, was reported to the Senate by the committee on courts of justice, and, under the rules, will lie over one day. Mr. Machee is personally in favor of the written statements.

The resolution includes every road in the State. It does not conflict with the Churchman two-cent mileage bill.

The general appropriation bill came up as a special order in the House. Mr. Bowman, chairman of the finance committee, is its patron. Nearly every public institution in the State is making large and persistent demands. They are pressing their claims with great vigor, and William and Mary College and the Virginia Polytechnic Institute particularly are placing it on the ground of necessities.

Mr. Bowman stated on the floor that the appropriation bill had the unanimous indorsement of the committee; that it only provided for the current expenses of the State and the annual allotments to the various institutions and that another bill would be presented later covering the appropriation to Jamestown and other special appropriations. The bill was then taken up section by section, the first being to increase the salary of the Governor's private secretary from $1,200 to $1,800. Mr. Lane offered an amendment to leave it at the original sum. The amendment was defeated. Small increases for the messenger in the office of the secretary and clerk in the corporation commission were also opposed by Mr. Lane, all recommendations of the committee being sustained in each case. The University of Virginia will get an increase of $25,000, the Virginia Polytechnic Institute an increase of $15,000; the Virginia Military Institute an increase of $10,000; the College of William and Mary an increase of $10,000, and State Female Normal School an increase of $10,000.

Mrs. Davis, who said she first became acquainted with the defendant in California several years ago, told the jury she met Smith on the street here and went to his office in the Boyce Building to talk over old times. Washington, Feb. 21.—Minor Morris has sent the following to President Roosevelt:

"Having waited a number of weeks that you might have ample time to ascertain all the circumstances connected with the insult recently offered my wife at the White House and that you might make some expression of deprecation which would naturally be expected, it is now incumbent upon me as husband and citizen to demand a public apology for this outrage on womanhood and common decency. It is unthinkable that such brutality would be tolerated anywhere in this country but above all in the White House That my wife has been confined to her bed six weeks from the shock and injuries of this damnable treatment is bad enough but I can say to you in all calmness that had the original orders from the White House been carried out as to her longer incarceration, her life would have been sacrificed. It is therefore incumbent upon me to repeat my urgent request that you take action at once suitable to the circumstances which have shocked the entire nation."

The President directed Secretary Loeb to return an answer to Mr. Morris's letter, the substance of which is that the matter was carefully investigated by Major Silvester and the President and they arrived at the conclusion "that the arrest was caused by the resistance offered by Mrs. Morris to the officers in the discharge of their duty and that the force exerted was no greater than was necessary to make the arrest effective."

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:44 a. m. and sets at 5:45 p. m. High water at 6:54 a. m. and 7:14 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section rain and colder tonight. Thursday fair, colder; winds becoming northwesterly and fresh.

The Parade.

The most elaborate celebration of the birthday anniversary of George Washington this year will be in Alexandria, the general's home town, near which is the old Washington home at Mount Vernon and to which town Washington came to church, to fraternal meetings and on business matters. All Virginia will have eyes turned toward Alexandria, in celebrating the day and the District of Columbia will send down thousands to witness the event.

Governor Swanson, of Virginia, it is expected, will be present to join in reviewing the parade. So will Lieutenant Governor Ellyson, of Virginia.

The feature of the parade will be the military and naval division. There will be several companies of Virginia militia, a regiment from the District of Columbia National Guards, a regiment of High School Cadets, a battery of light artillery, cavalry and artillery of the United States regular army stationed at Fort Myer, Va., a short distance from Alexandria and detachments of U. S. sailors and marines and a battalion of U. S. Engineers. There will be fourteen bands of music in line.

The Friendship Veteran Fire Association, of which George Washington was himself a member, will be given a place of honor with their hand engine. Contrasting with the old, will be the apparatus and the firemen of all the companies of Alexandria, and sixty-five men with a steam fire engine, a chemical engine, a truck and a hose wagon and a combination wagon from Washington under the command of Fire Chief Belt.

Many of the civic organizations of both Alexandria and Washington will be in line and will add much to the interest and importance of the occasion. In all the parade will stretch over two miles.

The work of decorating the city, has begun and festoons of national and other colors are seen everywhere.

The clear and mild weather which had prevailed for several days was followed by cloudy conditions last night, and this morning there were indications of approaching rain. The Weather Bureau had predicted rain for today with clearing and colder conditions tomorrow.

The following order was issued yesterday by Chief Belt to members of the Washington fire department who will participate in the parade:

"The detail that will represent this department on the occasion of the parade at Alexandria on George Washington's birthday, February 22, shall report to First Battalion Chief A. J. Sullivan, who shall have charge of the supervision of the formation of the detail, at the Alexandria ferry wharf, at 12 o'clock m., sharp.

"The detail shall wear dress uniforms, white shirts, black neckties, white gloves, belts and fire hats for all members, with the exception of drivers and tillermen, they to wear caps and gauntlets.

"On arrival at Alexandria the detail shall form as follows: Chief engineer right of line, followed by four paces in the rear by the first battalion chief. The dismounted men to march in columns of fours, keeping forty-four inches in rear of the front four, and to line themselves accordingly.

"The mounted force shall follow the dismounted force, and there shall be ten paces between all apparatus. The mounted force shall consist of the following men and members:

"No L hose wagon—Capt. T. O'Connor of No. L company, captain; Private J. H. Marti of No. 1, driver, and Privates J. J. Sweeney of No. 1 and O. Leaman of No. 9, privates.

"No. 18 engine—Driver W. Caton of No. 8, driver; Engineer J. F. Reynolds of No. 5, engineer and F. W. Brown of No. 16 assistant engineer.

"Truck Company E—Capt. C. F. Beers, Truck D. captain; Lieut. E. T. Martin, Truck E. tillerman; Driver E. W. Lowe, driver; Privates W. W. Virts, Truck A; C. T. Ball, Truck E. and P. Steinman, Truck F.

"Chemical Engine No. 5—Capt. C. E. Harper of No. 16, captain; Driver J. H. Oliver of No. 5, driver, and Privates S. J. Breslin, Chemical No 5, private.

"Members of the department shall keep in line until the apparatus are placed on the boat homeward bound.

"Members may wear fatigue caps to Alexandria and may place them in the supply wagon during the parade.

"Members, with the exception of the drivers and tillerman, may remain in Alexandria after the parade is dismissed."

Most of the houses on King street have been decorated, while from many on other streets flags are flying and national adonments are profuse.

The Friendship Veteran Fire Association tested their apparatus at the intersection of Prince and Alfred streets this afternoon. It threw a stream nearly as high as in by-gone days. The engine will be tested again tomorrow at Prince and Patrick streets immediately after the parade.

The United States dispatch boat Dolphin dropped down from Washington this morning and anchored off Prince street.

The formation of the parade will be as follows:

Chief Marshal, Maj. W. M. Smith.
Chief of Staff, Marshall L. King.
Military Aide, Capt. T. B. Cochran; Civic Aide, Lieut. J. Y. Williams; Fire Department Aide, John H. Trimyer, Secret Organization Aide, William MacA. Green.
Members of Staff from Fairfax county, commanded by Capt. George K. Pickett.
1st Division—Engineers' Band, U. S. A; battalion engineers, U. S. A.; battalion marines, U. S. M. C.; Navy Band; company of sailors; battery artillery, Fort Myer; mounted band, Fort Myer one squadron—two troops of cavalry from Fort Myer; D. C. National Guard Band; 1st regiment D. C. National Guard; battery artillery, D. C. National Guard; battalion Virginia militia, including the Alexandria Light Infantry; regiment Washington High School cadets; company of Maccabees.

2nd Division—Secret organizations; Marshal William Hamilton and staff; mounted Red Men from Washington, Alexandria and vicinity; Jr. O. U. A. M. from Washington and vicinity; other secret organizations.

3rd Division—Fire department; Marshal R. M. Latham and staff; guests visiting department in carriages; pieces of apparatus from Washington and sixty-eight men, commanded by Chief William Belt; local department, including the Friendship Veteran Fire Association, of which Washington was once president, the Reliance, Relief and Columbia companies.

The procession will form on Fairfax street, right resting on Duke, and will move over the following route:

Up Duke to Payne; thence to Prince; down Prince to Fairfax; thence to King; up King to Henry; thence to Cameron; down Cameron to Columbus; thence to Queen; down Queen to Washington; thence to Cameron; down Cameron to St. Asaph, the place of disbandment.

The Washington Birthday Celebration Association recognizing that a large number of guest will be in the city after dark passed a resolution requesting the merchants to leave all lights burning in stores and windows, in this way increasing the general illumination effect.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Ferdinand Patton, arrested by Officer Jones charged with being drunk in the street, was sent to jail for five days.

George Sigsfoot and John Courtney, arrested by Officers Garvey and Ferguson for being drunk in the streets, were sent out of the city.

Dolly and Mary Jenkins, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were sent to jail for ten days.

Amelia Ford, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with stealing meat from C. C Pelton, was fined $5.

Affrays.

A difficulty occurred last night in the western part of the city between Collie Cole and James Harris, both colored, during which the former cut the latter. Officers Garvey and Beach later arrested Cole and Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning fined him $20.

On Saturday night last William Pye and Roland Lambeth became involved in a difficulty at Gibbon and Washington streets, during which Pye knocked Lambeth down and kicked him unmercifully. His injuries are said to be of a serious nature. Pye was arraigned in the Police Court this morning and sent on to the grand jury.

John and Willie Penn became engaged in a fight while at work in the southern portion of the city this morning, during which John struck Willie on the head with a piece of iron and inflicted serious injury. Dr. Gorman dressed the wound.

Yeggman Pardoned.

Frank Burns, one of the alleged Baltimore yeggmen who about ten days ago pleaded guilty to the charge of robbing the National Bank of Manassas on the night of November 11, 1904, has received a pardon from the Governor of Virginia, and was yesterday released from jail. Casey was tried in October, 1905, and convicted and given five and a half years in the State penitentiary. Fitzpatrick was tried at the December term of the court and convicted and given eight years. The case against Smith was nolle-prossed. Gaileher has never been in the custody of the court. This pardon, it is presumed, closes the bank burglary case.

Invitation Received.

We have received an invitation from the Maury Literary Society of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute to attend its intermediate celebration on Friday evening, February twenty-third, at eight o'clock, at College Chapel. The invitation comes with the compliments of the Alexandria City Club, composed as follows: L. T. Downey, president; C. M. Smith, vice president; R. S. Hoffman, secretary; R. P. A. Johnson, treasurer; F. H. Rodgers, sergeant arms; R. McBurney, T. H. Clarke, Wm. F. Hellmuth, A. Harris, C. L. Watkins, A. G. Uhler, P. V. DeWestelaken and D T. Ramsey.

Fined Twenty Dollars.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of Cornelia Dixon, colored, who had been arrested by Officers Lyles and Knight charged with conducting business without a license. One of the cards circulated by the accused was exhibited in court. A cure of any disease to which flesh is heir was guaranteed if certain nostrums were used according to directions. A fine of $20 was imposed upon the delinquent. The cure-all institution is situated at No. 308 north Henry street.

Death of Mrs. McFarland.

Mrs. Florence McFarland (nee Church), wife of Mr. James McFarland, died at her home on Commerce street, late yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 29 years old. She leaves two children. Mrs. McFarland had been a sufferer from consumption.

Basketball.

The Alexandria Athletic Club basketball team was defeated last night by Company C, of Washington, by a score of 15 to 14. The game was closely contested throughout.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Personal.

The marriage of Miss Hallie Ramsay and Dr. Clement Ellis Conger will take place this evening at half past eight o'clock in Christ Church. Owing to a recent death in the family the marriage will be a quiet one, but all relatives and friends of the bride and groom are expected. The galleries will be closed.

Mr. Phillip Tenneson, who has been quite sick with inflammatory rheumatism, is able to be out again.

Mr. Mark B. Norris is confined to his home by sickness.

Mr. Joseph W. Wells, who is now at the Alexandria Hospital, is said to be critically ill.

Mr. Thomas Walker and Miss Bessie Walker, both of Mansfield, Ohio, and Miss Irene Shryock, of Ashburn, Va., are visiting Misses Irene Nagel and Sarah Walker, in this city.

The Alexandria German Club will give their last dance before Lent at McBurney's hall tonight. A number of strangers are expected be present.

Opera House Tonight.

Theater-goers who enjoy comedy should not fail to witness "Naval Engagements" which will be presented, for the first time in this city, at the Opera House tonight by the Hardy Dramatic Company, under the auspices of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus. This company has been warmly welcomed in every city in which they have appeared and have also received flattering press notices. The members of the Knights of Columbus have perfected all arrangements and hope that the company will be greeted with a crowded house.

The Burnett Pardon.

As stated in the Gazette on Monday, Governor Swanson has granted a pardon to Richard Burnett, who last August was found guilty of selling liquor on Sunday and without a license and was sentenced to serve one year in jail and to pay a fine of $300. The pardon, it is understood, does not relieve the accused from the payment of the fine and also of the cost, $53.92, which must be paid before he is released from custody.

Rear-end Collision.

The fourth section of south-bound freight No. 71 of the Southern Railway collided with the rear end of the third section of the same train at Chatham yesterday derailing and overturning the engine and five cars. Engineer Weinel, of Lynchburg; Fireman Allen Epes, of Union, S. C.; Conductor R. H Strayhorn, of University Station, N. C., and Brakeman N. E. Danson, of High Point, N. C., were injured.

Holiday.

Tomorrow, Thursday, will be Washington's birthday anniversary, and, following the annual custom, the occasion will be generally observed in this city. The schools will give holiday and the postoffice will observe holiday hours. The banks, public buildings and many of the wholesale houses will be closed, either all day or during the afternoon, and at night some of the patriotic societies will hold their banquets.

Patriotic Services.

As heretofore stated interesting patriotic and memorial services will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning in Christ Church, under the auspices of Mount Vernon Chapter, D. A. R. Rev. R. H. McKim, of Washington, and Senator Dubois, of Idaho, are expected to make the addresses, and fine music will be a feature. The offertory will assist in the restoration of Pohick Church.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late James R. Roberts took place this afternoon from the residence, 203 Queen street. Rev. Mr. Jeffers conducted the services.

The remains of Mrs. Alice Bowie, who died at the Alexandria Hospital Monday night from self-inflicted injuries, were taken to Washington today where they will be interred.

Reception.

A reception to members received by the church during conference year, 1905-06, will be held at the lecture room of the M. E. Church South, Friday, February 23, at 7:30 p. m. under the auspices of the Epworth League. At the same time the installation of the league officers will take place. The public is invited.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Junior Order of American Mechanics will visit the Rechabites fair at Odd Fellows' Hall tonight.

The annual inspection of uniforms was made last night at the regular meeting of the Reliance Fire Company.

All arrangements for the dance tomorrow night to be given by the Thursday Night Assembly at McBurney's Hall have been made and all who attend are assured a pleasant time.

The reception which was to have been given at the Children's Home tomorrow has been postponed.

Everybody's Magazine for March has been received from its publishers in New York. The leading article is a sketch of the life and work of "Marshall Field—Great Mercantile Genius." In "The Invisible World" Vance Thompson deals interestingly with the occult. This month's instalment of "Soldiers of the Common Good" is of especial importance. Thomas W. Lawson contributes an article entitled "The Black Flag on the Big Three." The second part of "The Stake and Plumb-Line," a story by Gilbert Parker, appears, and "The Spoilers," a serial by Rex Beach, grows in interest with each number. Eight short stories complete the fiction.

"It affords me pleasure to testify to the merits of Gowan's Pneumonia Cure. Last December I was threatened with pleurisy; in fact the physician pronounced it pleurisy, and treated me for two weeks for the trouble, with no beneficial results. A friend gave me a trial bottle of your remedy, and I was completely restored to health within a very short time. You certainly have a marvelous remedy, and I never fail to speak a good word for it. ### Tailor Stabbed to Death.

While Policeman Martin Owendorf, of the Bath Beach station, was patrolling his beat along Eighty-fifth street, in the vicinity of Twentieth avenue, Bath Beach at an early hour Monday morning, he discovered what he at first supposed was the form of an intoxicated man. A closer examination revealed the fact that the man was dead. The body was lying face downward. Owendorf, with his night stick, turned the body over, to find that the man's throat had been cut from ear to ear. The body was removed in the patrol wagon to the Bath Beach station-house, where it was identified as Abele Ciampo, thirty-five years of age, of 2136 Eighty-fifth street.

Ciampo was a wealthy tailor. His place of business was at 1932 Bath avenue, where he received business visits from the section's most exclusive residents.

Ciampo a little over a year ago married little Maria Romeo, the nineteen-year-old daughter of Salvatore Romeo, a wholesale fruit dealer, with a store on West street. Not a single cloud shadowed their lives. Ciampo, as far as could be learned, had not an enemy. He was sober, industrious, and devoted to his wife, who is soon to become a mother.

He left his shop, according to the police of the Bath Beach station, at about 9 o'clock Monday night. From there he went to a barber shop conducted by Tony Lunas, at 2135 Bath avenue.

Shortly afterward he left for home. He was found nearly three hours later. From the time he left the barber's until his still warm body was found by the policemen, his movements have not been traced.

Detective Tony Vachris, of the Brooklyn headquarters, examined the body more closely at the station and found a number of stab wounds. Vachris, who has cleared up many such mysteries, is of the opinion that Ciampo's death is the outcome of a long-standing grudge, held probably by some secret society.

Residents of the Bath Beach and Bensonhurst sections are much alarmed over the murder. There is some talk of organizing a vigilance committee for the protection of the residents of the section.
